CDC ANNUAL MEETING - JUNE 2017
Bluffton Area Lodging

Private Homes:
Housing in local homes will be available on a first come basis. There are homes that are prepared to house families as well as singles or couples. Please indicate your preference on the adult registration form and arrangements will be made. Hosting families are not expected to provide breakfast. Breakfast is available in Marbeck Center for $7.00, children 3-7 for $4.50, or you may make your own arrangements. A listing of local restaurants is included in your packet.

Bluffton University is offering lodging and meals on campus. Lodging will be in Ramseyer Hall, which is air conditioned. Lodging for children housed in the same room with parents is free. The lodging fee is $20.00 per person (not per room)/per night. There is no charge for children staying with their parents. The room fee does not include linens. The university is offering a linen service that includes 2 sheets, pillowcase, towel, a bar of soap, and a wash cloth. It does not include blankets. Pillows will be provided by the university. The cost of the linen service is $10.00 per person. Please register for lodging in Ramseyer Hall on the adult registration form.

We have reserved 30 rooms at Comfort Inn* at a cost of $89/room/night. Cut off date to reserve at this price is May 20. Ask for Central District Conference.
